Welcome to Franklin County, the Watermelon Capital of Alabama!

Enjoy your time in Franklin County, whether passing through or staying for a lifetime. We know you will see the RICHness of our area from the very first glance. Franklin County is RICH, first in History, established February 6, 1818, by the Alabama Territorial Legislature. We are RICH in Business and Industry, third generation family-owned businesses. Franklin County Industry is excelling in products and services in North America and across the globe. Our county is RICH in Nature with camping, hiking trails, and water recreation. You cannot help but fall in love with this adventurous and spectacular part of Northwest Alabama. We are RICH in Attractions with cool family fun during hot summer months; in addition, year-round concerts and theatrical productions are in abundance. Franklin County is RICH with individuals who are the bridge between business, industry, and school systems, sharing their stories, information, and knowledge with civic groups, organizations, and schools. Franklin County is RICH in educational opportunities with two public school systems and higher learning at Northwest Shoals Community College. Students in Franklin County excel and are RICH in County, State, National, and International Championships! Franklin County is RICH in generosity, awarding scholarships to graduating seniors, as well as time, talents, and money to other worthy causes. We are RICH with Festivals...eight festivals county wide, the largest being the Watermelon Festival. The Franklin County Chamber of Commerce continues promoting Franklin County by Building, Connecting, and Discovering the RICHness of our businesses, industries, attractions, and extraordinary individuals.

Watermelon Festival

Franklin County, the Watermelon Capital of Alabama

Treat yourself to a slice of juicy, ice-cold watermelon! Mark your calendar for the third weekend in August to sample the fruit we celebrate and the perfect way to cool off on a hot Alabama day. The Franklin County Watermelon Festival is an annual two-day event that appeals to all ages offering a variety of family friendly things to do in Russellville, Alabama.

The Watermelon Festival began in 1981 by local farmers. At harvest time they would bring their watermelons to town, sharing samples of their watermelons as a way to entice the purchasing of their crop. As the customers gathered around to buy the melons, politicians began to attend and visit with their Franklin County constituents. As a result, attendance grew to hear from their local officials and eat watermelon. With the success of this annual gathering, Mr. Bobby Bolton shared his idea of calling it the Watermelon Festival. It is now one of the largest events in Northwest Alabama. Franklin County was named the Watermelon Capital of Alabama in May of 2013 by the United States House of Representatives and the Alabama State Senate. Mr. Bolton's vision from decades past has seen this two-day event continue its success attracting 35,000 visitors annually from neighboring counties and states.
